

WPA Revival

Newly available, these WPA-era National Park prints have been painstakingly redrawn by a team of artists. The prints, which measure 23" x 17 1/2", are printed on heavy stock in a non-reflective matte finish. Each print sells for $35 from Ford Craftsman Studios, (877) 204-9961, fordcraftsman.com

Rose Red

Can't afford a hand-painted Art Nouveau or Mackintosh-inspired interior by CJ Hurley? Perhaps you could bring home one of his watercolors. In India ink and watercolor, Nouveau Rose is an original piece of art, drawn and painted by hand. It's $625 from CJ Hurley Century Arts, (503) 234-4167, cjhurley.com.

art + craft

by Mary Ellen Polson

Cabinet from the East

John Reed Fox designs and builds one-of-a-kind and limited edition pieces, often with Japanese and architectural influences. His Jasmine case in cherry with East Indian rosewood handles is $5,900. Contact him at (978) 635-0807, johnreedfox.com

Ten-sided Light

New from Craftsmen Hardware is this hand-hammered lantern adapted from the 1911 Culbertson House by Greene & Greene. In African mahogany with ebony details and copper-foiled art glass, the custom fixture measures 42" long x 24" wide x 12" high. It's $3,500. Contact (660) 376-2481, craftsmenhardware.com

Works of Mettle

The Ginkgo Leaf sconce is part of a line of original light fixtures just introduced by architect Kelly Sutherlin McLeod, and Jim

MICHELLE JOYCE PHOTOGRAPHY (TOP)

art + craft

Sullivan in Tile

Nawal and Karim Motawi drew inspiration for the Armitage literally from rubber-necking on the streets of Chicago. The Sullivan-esque medallion is composed of 14 pieces, including quarters, curved borders, and wings. The entire composition retails for $568. From Motawi Tileworks, (734) 213-0017, motawi.com

Robinson Revival

Karl Felperin's solid mahogany table is an adaptation of Greene & Greene's table for the 1907 Robinson House. The top is a full 1 3/4" thick. The 42"-wide table can extend up to 9' with leaves. It's available for $5,000. From Felperin Design Associates, (510) 795-6433, felperin.com

Works of Mettle

The Ginkgo Leaf sconce is part of a line of original light fixtures just introduced by architect Kelly Sutherlin McLeod, and Jim and Jill West of Circa 1910. The fixture measures 8" x 12". Including an art glass shade made by Lundberg Studios, the sconce retails for $750. From MW & M Lighting, mwmlighting@gmail.com, mwmlighting.com

Lamps on

Clark Renfort's sinuous double tendril lamps look like they grew and blossomed. Available in a choice of woods, including sustainably grown lyptus, prices range from $1,200 for table lamps. Torchieres are $1,800 to $2,500. From Renfort Lamps, (707) 984-6294, renfort.com

art + craft

Eaten Copper

James Mattson started etching copper after he spotted a Limbert lamp made with the process, which uses acids to create decorative patterns. Featuring a bas relief shade and base, the table lamp is 16" wide x 22" high. It retails for $1,599. From James Mattson Coppercraft, (877) 859-4168, jamesmattson.com

Oak in Frame

This bench-made 2" lap-joint frame in quartersawn oak features pyramidal corner accents. Measuring 15" wide by 9" deep, it costs about $220. The oil painting by Marcia Maynard is $450. Both from Fine Lines Framemakers, (800) 294-7973, finelinesframing.com

Rosewood in Relief

With its clean, straight lines and highly figured rosewood panels, Gerrit's bed is one of furniture designer Jo Roesler's signature pieces. In the queen size, the bed is $4,800. A king-sized bed sells for $5,200. All beds can be customized. From Nojo Design (413) 527-9663, nojodesign.com

Sunburst and Diamond

New from the Meredith Collection, the 4" x 4" Paramount tile has a geometric design that segues from the era of the tin ceiling to Art Deco. Part of a series of textured field designs, it's priced at $32 per square foot. Contact (330) 484-1656, meredithtile.com

