21st Century Arts

Watercolor and ink, gesso panels and interior frieze paintings are among the media that C.J. Hurley works in from his Portland, Ore., studio. His period-inspired, quartersawn oak-framed watercolors can be custom colored to work with your home's paint scheme, and each is an original handcrafted work of art, not a print. Hurley also consults with homeowners, and examples of his art and interiors are on his Web site, cjhurley.com; 503 234-4167.

Arts & Crafts Backsplash

Monterey Ceramic Tile and Marble has a Metals Collection line of accent tiles in solid bronze that coordinates well with Craftsman colors. Also available in nickel bodies, each 4" x 4" tile is cast, machine tumbled, hand polished and finished with a verdigris or brown patina and wax. The acorn and nautilus patterns shown would look nice in a simple frame as well. Visit montereyceramictile.com or call 626 288-8693.
